Chilworth Golf Centre's Mark Dawe made a telling contribution as the Hampshire PGA narrowly defeated the Hampshire County side at Blackmoor Golf.

Dawe birdied the last two holes at Blackmoor Golf Club to turn a one hole deficit into a one hole victory in his match against Jordan Ainley (Brokenhurst Manor).

It proved to be the vital point as the PGA side secured victory by the narrowest of margins, 8-7.

The Professionals had enjoyed a lunchtime lead after winning the morning foursomes 3-2. However the County side, captained by Alan Mew, fought back after lunch with Darren Wright, Martin Young and Jon Watt winning the top three singles matches.

The Professionals, captained by Chris Hudson, rallied with Richard Adams, Philip Bryden and Steve Mitchell all winning their matches leaving Dawe to clinch the tie on the 18th green.

Final score: Hampshire PGA 8 - Hampshire County Golf Union 7
