Early bird Barnes wins at Hockley

Ampfield's Jon Barnes won the Hockley Golf Club Pro-Am last Friday (4th June).

Barnes shot a four under par round of 67 after teeing off at eight o'clock in the morning. It proved a score that no one else could match, Walhampton's Kevin Saunders coming closest after a round of 68.

Barnes also won the Pro-Am with his Ampfield Golf Club team of Paul Hazell, Andy Toomer and Joe Ellis. They shot a remarkable twenty-two-under-par score of 120 to finish a clear nine shots ahead of second place.

Other prize winners included Fred Brierley, Paul Stephens and Mark Wakelin. 32 teams took part in the Tournament, which was sponsored by Fullers, and organized by Lyn Clash, Doug Peacock and the Hampshire PGA.

Leading Professional scores:
