Barnes repeats his Island triumph

Ampfield's Jon Barnes won the Shanklin & Sandown Golf Club Pro-Am Tournament, repeating his 2009 triumph.

Barnes shot rounds of 65 and 68 for a 36 hole total of 133, one shot ahead of Hockley's Gary Stubbington (69+65). James Ablett (70+67), David Porter (73+64) and Hampshire PGA Captain Chris Hudson (68+69) tied for third place on 137.

Jon Barnes in action

In addition to winning the Shanklin & Sandown title Barnes, as winning Professional, also retained the Sandham Office Services PGA Championship of the Isle of Wight.

The Pro-Am was won by Walhampton's Kevin Saunders and his team of Aggi Iona, Martin Fielder and Kris Iona. They compiled a nineteen-under-par score of 121 to win the event on count-back. Second place went to Stubbington's team of Maurice Flux, Malcolm Moorman and Sam Moorman. Jon Barnes, Chris Reed, Dave Bartlett and Ric Scoble (123) were third with Philip Bryden (Alresford), Steve Collins, Tony Cole and Keith Taylor (125) in fourth.

Other prize-winners included Tony Williams, Terry Jarman, Sue Pick, David Ames, Ben Nichol, Eugene Slevin and Dave Maidment.

A total of 42 teams took part in the Pro-AM Tournament, which celebrates its 30th anniversary in 2011.
