Nick Redfern, Richard Adams, James Pitcher & Chris Hudson

Four-way tie at South Winchester

There was a four-way tie at South Winchester in the Joe Glover Trust Charity Pro-Am Tournament.

Home Professional Richard Adams, Nick Redfern (Julius Baer), James Pitcher (Romsey) and Hampshire PGA Captain Chris Hudson (Southwood) all shot level par rounds of 72 to share victory.

Ampfield's Jon Barnes won the Pro-Am with his team of Mike Vertannes, Paul Philp and Ashley Wright. Their thirteen-under-par score of 131 was one shot better than Hockley's Gary Stubbington and his team of Tim Markwick, Kevan Walsh and Paul Kille.

Third place went to La Moye's Charles Le Sueur and his team of Victor Simmonds, David Maxted and David James.

Other prizewinners included Dan Smith, Mick Parton and James Martin.

The Tournament raised funds for the Joe Glover Trust, children's cancer charity.
