Cloke wins at Southwood

Andrew Cloke (Sherfield Oaks) won the Southwood Golf Club Charity Pro-Am with a six-under-par 36 hole total of 132. Cloke shot rounds of 67 and 65 to take victory by four shots from Ampfield's Jon Barnes (66+70).

The Pro-Am was won by Walhampton's Kevin Saunders with his low handicap team of John Mathis, Ashley Sharpe and D Cunliffe (125). They won on a count-back from second-placed Philip Bryden, Tom Williams, Prashant Gurung and Anthony Cordial and third-placed Chris Hudson, Stewart Duffain, Chris Lambert and Phil Hudson.

Other prize-winners included Nicky Banger, Eugene Slevin, Kurt Homewood, Ian Walton, Jason Hurst and Neil Marie, who won the 'What's the Score' competition.

The Tournament, which was celebrating its 23rd anniversary, supported two local Charities, Sebastian's Action Trust and Aldershot Garrison Special Needs Group.

Companies who supported the Tournament included Flagstone, Wilson, Hi-Tec, AJB Landscaping, The Swan, The Gas Network, Park Group, Club-Clean, Company Moves, Ash United, The Prince of Wales, Rushmoor Borough Council, UK Golf Signs, RM Carpets, Mack Trading, SDD Gardencare and Alexander Car and Support Agency.

The Tournament was organized by Club Professional Chris Hudson and the Rotary Club of Rushmoor.
