Justin Sandler with his Winning Pro-Am Team

Former Cams Hall assistant Justin Sandler (Gerrards Cross) and his team of Jerry Billins, Ron Marsh and Steve Keating won the Hampshire PGA's French Pro-Am, played at Omaha Beach Golf Club in Normandy.

Sandler's team amassed 235 points in the 54 hole tournament to take victory by a single point from Mark Treleven (Hayling) and his team of Paul Lucas, Mark Ward and Mark Rogers.

Third place went to Richard Lewington's team, the defending champions from 2010, in the tournament that was played at the immaculate 36 hole complex near Port-en-Bessin.

Treleven, Adam Harnett (Worldham Park) and Shaun Hall (Botley Park) shared the individual professional honours.

The Hampshire PGA travels to Spain in early February 2012 for its 22nd Overseas Pro-Am.
