Last minute Liz shares victory at Brokenhurst

Ladies European Tour regular Liz Bennett made the most of a last minute call-up to share victory with Jon Le Roux (Oris Medical) and Paul Jones (Canford Magna) in the Brokenhurst Manor GC Pro-Am.

Liz, who represents Brokenhurst Manor on the Ladies Tour, was practicing her putting at the Club when she was asked if she could step-in at the very last minute and play in the Hampshire PGA Order of Merit Pro-Am. Within an hour she was on the tee and on her way to recording a one-under-par score of 69 that was matched by Le Roux and Jones.

South Winchester's Richard Adams took fourth place with a level par round of 70.

Former Ryder Cup player Steve Richardson (Lee-on-the-Solent) won the Pro-Am with his team of Peter Price, Martin Rudderham and Paul Baxter after a back nine count-back. Their twelve-under-par score of 128 was matched by Roger Tuddenham and his team of Rohan Glyn, Tony Locke and Pete Egerton. Third place went to Parkstone's Martyn Thompson and his team of Gregg Briton, Stuart Cox and Brian Sweeney (129).

Other prize-winners included Richard Macro, Keith Morris, Ian Wallace, David Jones and Steve Wilson.

In all 35 teams took part in the Tournament, which was organised by home Professional Kevin Saunders.
