Hartley Wintney Pro-Am celebrates its 35th birthday

Three of Hampshire's leading Professional golfers shared victory in the 35th Hartley Wintney Golf Club Charity Pro-Am.

Mark Treleaven (Hayling), Roger Tuddenham (Hedge End Golf Centre) and Kevin Saunders (Brokenhurst Manor) all shot four-under-par rounds of 67 to head a field of 40 local PGA Professionals who were playing in the Tournament.

Fourth place was shared by David Porter (Wellow) and Richard Campbell (West Berks).

The Pro-Am was won by Simon Andrews (Portsmouth Golf Centre) and the low handicap amateur team of Simon Butts, Ali Wright and Shaun Lewis. Their seventeen-under-par score of 125 gave them victory, after a back-nine count-back, from Kevin Saunders and his team of Matt Barlow, Tom Vinall and Gary Mitchell.

Other prize-winners included Ian Callaway, Dave 'Hole-in-One' Warman, Dave Smith, Stephen Baker, Maggie Tomkins, Wendy Doel and John Comfort.

The Tournament raised funds for Naomi House, the nominated charity of Club Captain Alun Lamerton.

Sponsors and advertisers included ISS, RM Carpets, Pro-Tech Precision, Orlando Engineering, Topps Tiles, Palmer Construction, Ancells, Redfields Landscaping, Challenger Solutions, Adline Press, Class One Recruitment, AW Porter and Drivethru.
