Winning Pro-Am Team

'Red letter day' - for Kelly

Kelly Travers became the first lady golf Professional to ever win a Hampshire PGA Order of Merit Pro-Am when she shared victory in the Hunter Land Rover Paultons Golf Centre Pro-Am.

Never before in the 61-year history of the Hampshire PGA had a lady Professional won a tournament.

25-year-old Kelly shared victory with Jon Barnes (Ampfield), Scott Shibley (Army) and Eddy Rawlings (Southwick Park). All four shot two-under-par rounds of 69 at the Paultons Golf Centre.

Lee-on-the-Solent's Steve Richardson won the Pro-Am with his team of Martin Rudderham, Peter Price and Paul Baxter. They shot an impressive 22-under-par score of 120 to take victory by five shots from Ben Stimson (Paultons), Neil Williamson, Mervyn Allen and David Wellington.

Other prize-winners included Alan Dodge and Phil McBain.

The Tournament was generously sponsored by Hunter Land Rover.
