Porter wins at Shanklin & Sandown

Wellow's David Porter won the Shanklin and Sandown Golf Club Pro-Am Tournament.

Porter shot rounds of 71 and 69 to take victory by four shots from Andrew Cloke (Sherfield Oaks). Third place went to Hockley's Gary Stubbington (145) with James Pitcher (Test Valley) fourth on 146.

Porter shared the half-way lead with Cloke and Richard Adams (South Winchester). All three Professionals shot opening rounds of 71 on a very breezy day.

Porter's second round was the only sub-par round of the day. His one-under-par 69 was a model of consistency with two birdies and just one bogey. Before turning professional Porter won the Hampshire County Championship at Shanklin & Sandown Golf Club in 2003.

Porter also won the Sandham Office Services Award for the PGA Championship of the Isle of Wight.

Mark Bell (Shanklin & Sandown) won the Pro-Am with his team of James Summers, Ashley Lawrence and Matt Holbrook. Their sixteen-under-par score of 124 was five better than Simon Hayward (Westridge Golf Centre) and his team of Derek Letter, Ralph Taylor and Alex Messing. Coincidentally both teams were the first off the 1st and 10th tees just before 8.00am. Something about the early bird?

Other prize-winners included Chris Reed snr, Alison Hooper, Barry Guy, Chris Ree jnr, Richard Jarman & George Hill. Vice-Captain Dave Woodhouse presented the prizes.

42 teams took part in the Tournament, which was celebrating its 30th anniversary.
