Cloke shoots 62 at Soton City Golf Course

Andrew Strode-Gibbons (CEO, First Banco) with Andrew Cloke

Corhampton's Andrew Cloke equalled the course record with an amazing seven-under-par round of 62 in the First Banco sponsored Southampton City Golf Course Pro-Am Tournament. This was a remarkable score given that the score has not been bettered at the course since 1965. The magic number of 61 or even lower remained a distinct possibility as Cloke stood on the 16th tee at 8 under par, but played the last three holes in +1 to finish five shots clear of the field.

The round of 62 at Southampton City made it a unique 'Basset' double for Cloke, coming two years after he recorded the same score with a ten-under-par 62 at nearby Stoneham Golf Club.

There was a five-way tie for second place on two-under-par 67 between Michael Lord (Meon Valley), Ben Stanbrough (Romsey), Ian Roper (Corhampton), Mark Treleven (Hayling) and Mark Dowdell (Southwick Park).

James Pitcher (Parley Golf Centre) and his team of Mark Bulley, Tony Frost and Martin Boulton successfully defended the pro-am title they won last year. Their score of 123 was one better than Jon Barnes (Ampfield), Peter Price, Martin Rudderham and Paul Baxter.

The Tournament was sponsored by First Banco, a finance company headed up by Southampton businessman Andrew Strode Gibbons, who spared no expense in branding the course in the First Banco image. For more information please visit www.firstbanco.com

The event was organised at Southampton City Golf Course by MyTimeActive, who have recently celebrated a year as operators of the facility.
