Cloke makes it four wins in five years at Southwood

Andrew Cloke with Chris Lambert (Captain, Southwood GC)

Andrew Cloke (Sherfield Oaks) emphasised his liking for Southwood Golf Club with his fourth pro-am win in five years at the Farnborough course.

Cloke shot two rounds of 67 for a four-under-par total of 134 to take victory by two shots from Rob Gowers (South Winchester) and Chris Hudson (Southwood).

Hudson had a one/two in the Pro-am with his morning round team of Phil Hudson, Nikki Kelly and Terry Watts winning on 119 and his afternoon round team of Chris Lambert, Steve Dicker and Geoff Thomas coming second on 121.

Ampfield's Jon Barnes was third with D Pullan, G Howes and M Reed (123) with Hockley's Gary Stubbington in fourth with Peter Trowsdale, Alan Digweed and Chad Gurumg (124).

Other prize-winners included Jason Turner, Mark Bassett, Peter Price, Frank May, Harry Martin, Kay Finley, Martin Rudderham and Phil Hudson.

The Southwood GC Charity Pro-Am was celebrating its 24th anniversary and in that time the Tournament has raised over £50,000 for local charities. This year's charity was the Rushmoor Carers Support Group.

Sponsors included The Swan Inn, Club-Clean, Company Moves, Oakray Services, Alexander's Care and Support Agency, Sustainable Options, Rushmoor Rotary Club, The Prince of Wales and The Gas Network.

The Tournament was organised by Southwood Golf Club and the Rotary Club of Rushmoor.
