Tidworth Garrison Golf Club Pro-Am

Tidworth Garrison Golf Club

Friday 2nd September 2011

John Ray (Captain, Tidworth Garrison GC) with Sam Porter, Howard Porter, Terry Gosden and Guy Horsey

Campbell & Dowdell share the spoils at Tidworth

Richard Campbell (West Berks) and Mark Dowdell (Southwick Park) shared first place in the Tidworth Garrison Golf Club Pro-Am with three-under-par rounds of 67.

Charlie Gold (Tidworth Garrison) and Gary Stubbington (Hockley) shared third place on 68, one shot better than a four-way tie for fourth place between Andrew Cloke (Corhampton), Ben Cummings (Basingstoke), Mark Treleaven (Hayling) and Matt Robbins (Southampton City).

The Pro-Am was won by Tidworth's Club Professional Terry Gosden and his team of Howard Porter, Guy Horsey and Sam Porter. Their fifteen-under-par score of 125 was one better than Gareth Williams (Donnington Grove) with Richard Hughes, Pat Dobbs and Tom Butterfield.

Third place went to Romsey's Ben Stanbrough with Steve Prince, Steve Grinstead and Stuart Cochrane. Other prize-winners included Tony Coventry, Matt Patton, John Thorn and Brian Hutchins.

It was Tidworth Garrison's 21st Pro-Am Tournament and the anniversary was celebrated with a display by Geoff Swain, the former world trick shot champion. A large gathering of pro-am competitors enjoyed Geoff's trick shot routine.

Forty-four teams took part in the Pro-Am Tournament, which was organised by Tidworth Garrison Golf Club and supported by a number of Companies including Polgate, Fawcetts Garage, EZGO, TaylorMade, Peter Stirland Ltd, Monxton Nurseries, Cavanfields UK Ltd, 1st Light Energy and Bulpitt Print Ltd.
